

International Fees Summary

LAC's international students are fully involved in all aspects of college life, including opportunities to present their culture in various activities on and off the college campus.

Parents/Caregivers are welcome to arrange their own accommodation for their child or choose to have their child live on campus in Longburn Adventist College's boarding facility, LAC House.

Payment Options: Caregivers may pay up-front or by Termly instalments to be able to apply for a student visa:

- Due to the high cost and delays in applying for multiple visas, up-front payment is the preferred option
- All instalments must be finalised by the end of the academic school year
- International student fees for returning students must be paid before the school year begins
- Please contact LAC's Business Manager, if you have any questions: finance@lac.school.nz

*Attendance Dues & ISPMML (International Student Property Major Maintenance Levies)

These Dues are used to fund capital works in the college and are paid directly to NZ Seventh-day Adventist Schools Association.

At LAC we have been blessed with the property work completed by the proprietors and the extra teaching space they have provided over the years. They do not receive any government funding for this, so your Attendance Dues are vital to enable the proprietors to do this work for us.
