

VACANCY

Volunteer Assistant Boarding Dean

Longburn Adventist College House (LAC) is looking for an enthusiastic and energetic person who can be a parent-figure to our wide range of young men, and women, aged 11 – 18 years old. This exciting opportunity would suit a service orientated person who is passionate about creating outstanding experiences for both domestic and international boarding students.

The Volunteer Assistant Boarding Dean will have a heart for working with young people and have shown an ability to inspire those around them. An ability to relate to a diverse group of students is essential. Due to the nature of the role, Deans are rostered to work weekends and evenings especially when major events are happening.

Applicants should have:

- A commitment to our special Seventh-day Adventist character
- Ability to relate cross-cultural responsiveness
- Empathy for international students who may be experiencing life away from home for the first time
- Highly developed communication and interpersonal skills
- Discipline and leadership to live with and work alongside young people
- Excellent organisational skills and time management

A willingness and ability to take part in religious instruction and uphold the special Seventh-day Adventist character of the school is a condition of employment. The successful candidate will start mid-January 2021.

Applications close Wednesday 9th December 2020

To request a job application pack please email your CV and a covering letter (including contact details of at least 2 professional referees) stating the strength and interests you would bring to our boarding.
