Payment Options: Caregivers may pay up-front or by Termly instalments to be able to apply for a student visa:

- Due to the high cost and delays in applying for multiple visas, up-front payment is the preferred option
- All instalments must be finalised by the end of the academic school year
- International student fees for returning students must be paid before the school year begins
- Please contact LAC's Business Manager, if you have any questions: fm@lac.school.nz

†Attendance Dues & ISPMML (International Student Property Major Maintenance Levies)

These Dues are used to fund capital works in the college and are paid directly to NZ Seventh-day Adventist Schools Association.

At LAC we have been blessed with the property work completed by the proprietors and the extra teaching space they have provided over the years. They do not receive any government funding for this, so your Attendance Dues are vital to enable the proprietors to do this work for us.

International Boarding Fees Summary

Boarders are housed in two dormitory buildings on the Longburn Adventist College Campus

The girls' and boys' dormitories accommodate students in double (shared) and single rooms. The cafeteria, which includes a fully equipped industrial kitchen, is located in a separate building within walking distance of the dormitories. Within the cafeteria building, is the dining room and multipurpose/lounge area.

Other student facilities for the Longburn Adventist College boarders include a tennis court, basketball court, athletics ground, and access to the LAC gym and music suite. There is a covered area for storage of bicycles.
